Donate Stock

Donating appreciated securities allows you to support the Alameda County Community Food Bank while minimizing your out of pocket costs through tax savings the donation generates. Because the value of many investments has increased significantly over the last decade, you may hold assets that, when sold, will generate large capital gains taxes.

You may transfer gifts of stock to the Food Bank without paying capital gains tax. You may also receive a charitable deduction for the value of the stock donated. Please consult with your tax advisor for details.

For instructions on how to donate stock contact your broker or the Food Bank's broker, Charles Schwab, at (800) 435-4000 and refer to account number 1122-8909.

- The Food Bank's federal tax identification number is 94-2960297.
- The Food Bank's DTC number is 0164.

To ensure proper acknowledgement of your stock donation, including the issuing of a receipt for tax purposes, please complete and submit this form and fax or mail it to the Food Bank. Donations cannot be made with this form.
