

Food is a basic human right

ALAMEDA COUNTY
COMMUNITY
FOOD BANK

HELP US PURSUE A HUNGER-FREE COMMUNITY!

Donate with confidence

For every $1 you donate, the Food Bank provides $6 worth of food. 100% of your donation stays local!

We have earned Charity Navigator's highest rating for 10 consecutive years — placing us among the top 1% of nonprofits nationwide.

Host food and fund drives

Start a Virtual Food Drive to help us buy items that can't go in barrels, like milk, eggs and farm-fresh produce.

Host a food drive barrel to collect healthy staples like peanut butter and canned tuna.

NEW! Share your birthday, holiday, or other special occasion to fundraise for the Food Bank.

Volunteer

Three hours makes a huge difference! Volunteer in our warehouse, on our Emergency Food Helpline, assist with events and office projects, or be a forceful anti-hunger advocate!

GET STARTED TODAY AT ACCFB.ORG

ALAMEDA COUNTY COMMUNITY FOOD BANK

The Food Bank serves 1 in 5 people in Alameda County. Most of our clients are children and seniors.

The cost of living in the Bay Area makes it difficult – if not impossible – for working families to pay for housing, utilities and transportation, and put a healthy meal on the table.

WE WILL PROVIDE

This Year

By 2018

90 million meals = 1 meal a day for every food insecure person in Alameda County

Our range of hunger-relief efforts includes:

One of California's busiest emergency food helplines

Multilingual CalFresh (food stamps) outreach

Innovative political advocacy efforts

Nutrition programs in multiple languages

Children's Backpack and Mobile Pantry programs

95 cents of every $1 donated goes directly to food programs.

SEE THE REVERSE FOR WAYS YOU CAN HELP