The Food Bank's Volunteer Newsletter • Fall/Winter 2017

How should I volunteer? We'll help you decide!

START HERE

Do you want to give your time and energy to support our community?

NO

Are you sure? You'll be supporting seniors, children and families — and we really can't do our work without you.

YES!

Do you have time on a weekday? (Especially Mondays and Tuesdays when we need volunteers the most.)

YES!

Come in for a weekday shift! We could really use your help — we need 40% more volunteers to meet community need. Bonus: bring a whole group!

NO

Join us for a weekend or evening shift! Check our volunteer page for upcoming dates.

YES!

There are lots of other ways to support our community! Visit us at accfb.org/get-involved.

You're right. I'm in.

What about a weekend, or an evening?

No.

Super busy right now.

WAKING UP THE WAREHOUSE WITH PEET'S

Peet's employees at the Food Bank warehouse

Distributing 31 million meals a year has turned us all into caffeine-fiends. Luckily, the crew from Peet's Coffee & Tea has our back! In addition to donating coffee for our clients, they also provide wonderful items that support our fundraising events. Plus, their team members have lent nearly 700 hours of help in our warehouse over the last decade. Thanks for fueling our work and filling our mugs, Peet's!

Welcome to the Warehouse, Glover brothers!

This summer, longtime volunteer Rodney Glover invited his brother, actor and activist Danny Glover, to join us in the warehouse for a volunteer shift. He met with young volunteers, helped sort fresh produce and talked with staff. We're so grateful for all of Rodney's help over the years, and for inspiring this fun family visit.
